WHAT WE LEARNED:

The ability to control
your environment is related to your overall satisfaction with working from home.

SO WHAT?

Employees need to have agency over their workspaces so
they can work better.

HKS Remote Work Environment

The more control people have, the happier they are.

Work satisfaction jumps 12% for those employees who have more control of their physical home office conditions, like the simple choice to shut a door to keep noise out.
